Strategy innovation is the capacity to reconceive the existing industry model in ways that create new value for customers, wrong-foot competitors, and produce new wealth for all stakeholders.¹ Strategy innovation is the only way for newcomers to succeed in the face of enormous resource disadvantages, and the only way for incumbents to renew their lease on success.

Strategy Innovation and the Quest for Value

The quest for value and shareholder returns are required for today and the foreseeable future. And the companies that got ahead of this transition, that have been rewarding returns over production, are better able to survive the market volatility.
