Think carefully. How you respond will have massive implications on the entirety of your life. Because whatever you think the answer is, that is what you will live for. No matter what your response, one thing is certain: God created life, so he should be the one to tell us what the good life is. He does this for us in Psalm 1, where we see that every life fits into one of two categories: the righteous life or the wicked life. And God makes it absolutely clear that the good life, the blessed ...
