Mountain Poems All around the world, mountains rise up out of the landscape, reaching high in to the sky. These mountains have always held an irresistible attraction. They represent impossible challenges, insurmountable obstacles that dare to be summited.

14 Magnificent Poems about Mountains - Poetry In Nature

A poem of angst and death, 'The Ship of Death' uses the metaphor of a journey to invoke the idea of self-discovery: the poem involves the poem's speaker calling for the reader to prepare a 'ship of death' – 'the fragile ship of courage, the ark of faith' – to transport them to 'oblivion', travelling from 'the old self' to 'the new'.
