How Social Listening Can Improve the Customer Experience

Engaging customers is a challenge at the best of times - in the era of the coronavirus pandemic, even more so. People are being forced to work from home, avoid walks and gatherings, and many businesses have shut down their physical shops altogether to go fully digital. Amidst this social distancing (or, even better, “physical distancing” according to the World Health Organization), engaging and retaining customers without the usual face-to-face interaction may be tough.
