The first good thing about government retirement benefits is how easy it makes retirement planning. While everyone needs to be aware of the three-legged stool of retirement, two of the three legs are as solid as they can be for public servants. Employer retirement plans and Social Security are predictable and locked in for public servants.

Why Government Retirement Benefits Are Considered Good

Government: A good government shouldn't control its citizens, but it should intervene when it's citizens are making harmful decisions. And when the government is making harmful decisions it's citizens should intervene. There needs to be some sort of safeguard that keeps these two from harming one another.
