It seems logical that by ensuring all are treated equally we can make inclusion happen in any setting. In sport, if we treat everyone equally then this means we ensure everyone gets the same resources, same support, same information, same equipment, same choices, same coaching, same rules, same facilities, same pathways etc.

Equality, equity and the role of fairness in inclusive sport.

Sport requires honesty and fair play. Sport builds courage, testing the willingness to try, to fail, and to try again. Governments are pledged to creating a sport environment untainted by cheating, violence and other unethical practices.

PROMOTING FAIR PLAY IN SPORT

Ethics in sport requires four key virtues: fairness, integrity, responsibility, and respect. Fairness. All athletes and coaches must follow established rules and guidelines of their respective sport. Teams that seek an unfair competitive advantage over their opponent create an uneven playing field which violates the integrity of the sport.
