English Trader, Indian Maid: Representing Gender, Race ...

In English Trader, Indian Maid, Frank Felsenstein has assembled the main English versions of this once-famous story, including a newly rediscovered poetical epistle by Charles James Fox, one of the leading parliamentary promoters of the cause of abolition. As well as George Colman the Younger's still vibrant comic opera considered by some the earliest English social problem play the book contains tantalizing retellings from the Caribbean and from America, where the story has close affinities ...
