The Children of the Sky (Zones of Thought, #3) by Vernor Vinge

Unfortunately, this The Children of the Sky was profoundly disappointing. The story was convoluted in ways that were ridiculous, and sometimes clearly just for the purpose of adding length. Characters behaved in ways that weren't plausible, and the end was a level of absurdity that left me feeling Vernor never really wanted to write the book to ...

Last updated March 27, 2018. Yesterday, Delta unveiled a new lounge for kids, the Delta Sky Zone. It’s basically a kids-only lounge with XBOX 360s, televisions, educational materials, and more. I’m a bit jealous of those kids! I wish our big-boy and big-girl lounges had XBOX 360s in them. Growing up with my father traveling frequently, my brother and I are were fortunate enough to frequently join he and my mother for trips around the country.

My kids absolutely love Sky Zone. There are so many different activities for the kids to do. Whether it's a foam pit, basketball, dodgeball, free jump. You name it they have the activity. It's just wonderful. The staff is so nice. Most of them actually participate with the kids. Show them a few tricks. Help them on their jump technique. I really like it.
