Motorists in New York are subject to strict rules regarding when and how they are allowed to change lanes. If you violate these laws and you make an unsafe lane change you could be charged with a moving violation. The consequences could be serious, as too many moving violations could actually put your driver's license at risk of being

CHANGING LANES. by Kathleen Long · RELEASE DATE: May 14, 2013. Long (Christmas Confessions, 2008, etc.) adds another feel-good romance/self-revelation novel to her resume. Talk about having a bad day. Syndicated columnist Abby Halladay and her fiance, Fred, are only months from the Big Day when the ax falls. First, Abby loses her job, then she learns the house they've bought in her hometown of Paris, N.J., needs costly repairs before anyone can move in—and she's already moved out of ...

CHANGING LANES | Kirkus Reviews

I haven't been disappointed yet in reading Kathleen 's novels and Changing Lanes was again another story that I fully enjoyed reading. Her character development is excellent in that you feel like you actually know these people, and can relate to them. I also love how she weaves some good life lesson kind of statements into her text.
