"Suggestible You" is more investigative and historical, along with being science-based, where "Placebo" is anecdotal and goes more into the parts of the brain and brain function. I went with audible on "Suggestible" and wasn't sorry. At the end there is a sample meditation/hypnosis exercise that was worth the extra 4 bucks with my Kindle edition.

Suggestible You Quotes by Erik Vance - Goodreads

Suggestible You (2016) shows the amazing ways our expectations affect our body’s responses to illness, pain and memory. It explores how the power of human suggestibility changes the processes that happen in our bodies and minds. And it describes how humans can – and already do – harness this ability to improve lives, whether in medicine or in everyday life.
