One useful definition of conflict (Wilmot & Hocker (2010), Interpersonal Conflict, p.11) is: Conflict is an expressed struggle between at least two interdependent parties who perceive incompatible goals, scarce resources, and interference from others in achieving their goals.

Introduction to Conflict Management

In Chapter Three, Hocker and Wilmot discuss the role of power in interpersonal conflict. They begin by observing that people have very different attitudes towards power. Some take a positive view of power, and associate it with self-control, charisma, political skill, or control over others. Other people take negative views toward power, viewing it as aggression or a limited resource.
