Johannes Voelz, Transcendental
Resistance: The New

...
"An ambitious book with a two-pronged agenda, Transcendental Resistance undertakes a rigorous, sustained critique of the theoretical assumptions underlying New Americanist criticism of the last three decades, including both empire criticism and the more recent transnational turn. This double purpose is reflected in the structure of dialectically paired chapters—critique followed by alternative interpretation—organized around three topics: representation, identity, and nation."—

UPNE - Transcendental
Resistance: Johannes Voelz

Johannes Voelz's Transcendental Resistance takes issue with the New Americanist interpretive paradigm in American Studies and cultural criticism. For the last twenty years, practitioners within this model have approached cultural texts--particularly those of the nineteenth century--as irrevocably implicated in a hegemony that enshrines bourgeois liberalism and imperialist expansionism.
