The amount we spend on fundraising and governance is low compared to many charities, enabling us to ensure that more of your money goes directly to communities overseas. For every pound we receive, we spend 90p helping people out of poverty. 80p is spent on our projects overseas, and another 10p on education and campaigns in Scotland, focusing on changing the conditions that lead to global poverty. 10p is invested back into fundraising to raise more money to spend on our mission in the future.
