Why Me Sarah Burleton

Sarah Burleton 's memoir Why Me? tells the story of her horrifically abusive childhood. Her mother's hatred of her is focused to the point of obsession and it seems a miracle that Burleton survived at all. That she has gone on to be a loving wife and mother is impressive and inspiring. I found this book painful but compulsively readable.

Sarah Burleton (Author of Why Me?)

After Why Me hit New York Times bestseller status and local newspapers found out, I was contacted by Prevent Child Abuse Illinois. They were hoping that I could come speak to some of their employees for a half hour about my book, my past, and any insight I could give on preventing child abuse.

Interview with Sarah Burleton, author of Why Me, What It ...

I can't describe the rush of emotions I experienced while reading this book, but is the only one that's ever made me cry. This is the most powerful story I've read in a long time, and a masterpiece of encouragement. I chose this work because I can relate to a certain degree so it hit very close to home.

Why Me?: A shocking true story of child abuse - Kindle ...

For those of you who do not know me, my name is Sarah Burleton. I am the NY Times, USA Today, and WSJ Bestselling author of Why Me, my story of my childhood abuse. I was completely unprepared for the success that Why Me brought; I had never marketed my book, never advertised, or asked for a review. I seriously just woke up one morning, checked my sales on Amazon.com and saw that overnight, my little book had shot up the rankings and word of mouth was driving the success of my story.

Sarah Burleton

Her first book, her child abuse memoir Why Me?, spent 26 weeks on the New York Times' Best Sellers list and the print version is endorsed by David Pelzer, author of A Child Called It. Sarah is now realizing her goal in becoming an ambassador for abused children and adult survivors and is currently conducting workshops and seminars throughout the state of Illinois. Her message of strength over adversity and her story will help counselors, teachers, and other professionals identify signs of ...

Why Them eBook: Burleton, Sarah: Amazon.co.uk: Kindle Store

When Sarah succeeded in life, got her degree, her husband and child I punched the air shouted, "Well done Sarah"; then I cried a myriad of tears. Tears for Sarah and for myself and all of the other SURVIVORS out there. I wish you all future happiness and am thankful for the courage Sarah showed in sharing her story and giving us hope. Whew.
