Global Health in Times of Violence 1. For those—the countless many—who live in regions of the world riddled with conflict, insecurity, oppression, and (all too often) great poverty, these truly must seem like dark times. Even for those of us privileged (and lucky) to live in areas of relative peace and prosperity, violence seems to be ever present—if not in our daily lives, then certainly in the lives of others, captured by the daily news.
