Books by Vincent Berg (Author of Stranded in a Foreign Land)

Vincent Berg (1957) was born in New Jersey but, being a military dependent, grew up on 'more or less the East Coast'. Working in Systems Engineering in the Financial Services in Chicago and New York City, he never considered himself a writer, but after retiring and moving closer to his family, he wanted to explore the kinds of books he enjoyed.

Book: Zombie Leza by Vincent Berg

Vincent Berg That's a tough one, as I don't often read 'couple's stories', but rather 'one man's' stories as he struggles to overcome adversity. There might be romance involved, but it's rarely the major driving force in the story, it's more the icing on the cake. That's probably why the romances of my main characters tend to occupy relatively minor subplots.
