The sixth volume of Copleston's history, and the last one I finished the first time I read these in college, so the last three will be for the first time. This volume covers the Enlightenment/Aufklärung (about 40% of the book, or part one in the old paperback edition which divided it into two books) with particular emphasis on Rousseau, and the philosophy of Kant (about 60%).

Synopsis Copleston, an Oxford Jesuit and specialist in the history of philosophy, first created his history as an introduction for Catholic ecclesiastical seminaries. However, since its first publication (the last volume appearing in the mid-1970s) the series has become the classic account for all philosophy scholars and students.
