Transformers: The Movie Guide is a book for the 2007 live-action movie. Overview. Various character profiles, covering the major (robotic) players of the movie. A bit of fleshing out of character abilities, weapons, and histories. As well, the book covers other things about Transformers that the movie mentions, such as the Trans-scanning, and Protoforms. It, like other visual guides, has the standard seemingly near-nonsensical callouts that point to various parts (an example being Optimus ...

The 'Transformers' movie trilogy is complete, and we've put together a massive character guide listing every Autobot and Decepticon from all three films - 78 robots in disguise!

Transformers: Dark of the Moon arrives on Blu-ray and DVD, thus completing fans' home video collection of Michael Bay's Transformers trilogy.

'Transformers' Complete Movie Character Guide | Screen Rant

After being fatally wounded, the leader of the heroic robots is shown in a medical bay in the presence of his friends, including a small human boy. After choosing his successor, he succumbs to his injuries and dies. His life monitor flatlines and his glowing blue eyes fade out. Lastly, his entire body turns to a charcoal-like gray color and his head turns down to his shoulder.

Parents Guide - IMDb

A small Decepticon infiltrates Air Force One, and while attempting to upload a virus into the military database, is attacked by CIA agents. Several agents are killed by the Decepticon, which survives. There is huge battle scene towards the end of the movie, with fighting between the Autobots and Decepticons, and the military and the Decepticons.

Parents Guide - IMDb

The guide has lot of high quality pictures of most of the robots in the movie, the notable missing characters for me are Starscream and Ironhide... The fact boxes on the character's robot and vehicle modes are a bit boring, though. Its like they drew a line to a random part on the vehicle and decided "let's say THIS is a sensor...
